

“I signed up for Mariette's Jump Start program, and it exceeded every expectation I had of a coaching relationship. She got me thinking bigger and executing faster than I ever could have on my own.”

About Mariette

I've been positioning, packaging and prepping career seekers to make their next career move for nearly two decades. Clients come to me when they are just thinking about a change or have had change thrust upon them through a downsizing or sale. I developed The Career Advantage™ programs to provide a fast track to standing out in the marketplace.

Career Transition Jump Start

For Executives & Professionals Who Want To Move Up Or Out

- Are you in the job market or just thinking about it and want to be packaged for your next opportunity?
- Did you get a call from a recruiter or learned about a new position that has you scrambling to reply?
- Are you stalled in your job search and want to re-energize your efforts?

Whether your issue is one of these or something else,
NOW is the best time to be positioned for success.

Maximize your market value

The Career Transition Jump Start program positions, packages and prepares you to maximize your market value. You'll quickly get to clarity about what you're going for, connect with what sets you apart and assess your opportunities through a new and powerful lens.
